PHILADELPHIA PRIME BASEBALL

PLEASE FORWARD TO ANYONE WHO MIGHT BE INTERESTED - THANK YOU

I thought you might have an interest in getting together to play during summer 2023 because you are, or potentially are playing baseball in college. I know many of you are potentially looking at playing in summer leagues. If you are, this would be a way to get [more] reps.

We would play under the Philadelphia Prime Baseball name. Prime will register the 18U team in the below events. Prime would divide the tournament fee evenly among the number of players we have for each event, e.g., if the event cost is $1300 and we had 13 kids attend the event, each player would pay $100. Prime will provide jerseys and hats (some of you already have them). The only cost the player would be responsible for is their share of the event and travel/lodging if necessary. This is a great opportunity for you to get reps to make sure you are ready for college baseball come fall 2023!
